

The 1st Annual Crawford Festival 2022

28-29 June 2022

“How to write a book – A practical guide to producing a work of philatelic literature”

Tuesday 28 June

- 09:30-10:00 Coffee & Registration
10:00-10:15 Welcome
10:15-11:45 Keynote: Crawford in Context, the place of the 26th Earl in philatelic history by David R. Beech (Past President, RPSL)
11:45-12:00 Coffee Break
12:00-13:00 Research at the RPSL by Nicola Davies (Head of Collections, RPSL).
13:00-14:00 Lunch/Networking
14:00-15:00 Open for Everybody: An Introduction to Research Resources of the the British Library's Philatelic Collections by Richard Scott Morel (Curator, British Library Philatelic Collections)
15:00-16:00 Research at The Postal Museum by Chris Taft (Head of Collections, The Postal Museum)
16:00-16:15 Coffee Break
16:15-17:15 Copyright and Philatelic Publishing by Prof. Charles Oppenheim
17:15-17:30 Final thoughts for the day ...

Wednesday 29 June

- 09:30-10:00 Coffee & Registration
10:00-11:30 Keynote: Preparing for publication by Brian Trotter & Guests
11:30-11.45 Coffee break
11.45-13:15 Between Home and the Front: A Study of American Civil War Letters at the Smithsonian's National Postal Museum by Lynn Heidelbaugh (Curator, Smithsonian National Postal Museum)
13:15-14:30 Lunch
14:30-16:00 Philatelic authors' panel discussion led by Chris Harman. Participants including Lars Engelbrecht, Hugh Feldman, Guillermo Gallegos and Maurice Hadida, Jonas Hällström and Peter Young.
16:00-16:15 Coffee Break
16:15-16:45 Announcement of the winner of the Crawford Medal and presentation of the award
16:45-17:00 Concluding remarks & save the date/topics for the next two festivals
17:00-18:00 Drinks & Nibbles